

IN HONOUR OF WOMEN

فازخوای سوان سوزوفتوق ص

Great gifts and shared values within different cultures

An afternoon of experience, participation, inspiration and celebration, exploring how feminine qualities express our universal values in a creative, nurturing and harmonising way.

SUNDAY 15TH MARCH 2009

2.00 PM - 5.30 PM

GLOBAL CO-OPERATION HOUSE
65-69 POUND LANE, LONDON NW10 2HH

WWW.BKWSU.ORG/UK/WHATSON

PHONE: 020 8727 3350

★ free admission

BRAHMA KUMARIS
WORLD SPIRITUAL UNIVERSITY (UK)

REGISTERED CHARITY NO. 269971

Great gifts and shared values within different cultures

Presenters Programme

Ammanna Shaka Consultant, specialising in programmes for foster & adoptive families of abused children	2.00 - 2.10	A Song by Ann Malone
	2.10 - 2.20	Welcome ! by our host Falastin Yassin
	2.20 - 3.10	"Conversations With A Few Women" (Hosted by Amana Shaka, with Hanna Field, Maria Arpa and Maureen Goodman)
Falastin Yassin Co-ordinator of Brent Refugee Forum working to promote inclusion, eliminate discrimination & facilitate integration for refugees	3.10 - 3.20	Harlesden Dance Group - "Premonition"
	3.20 - 3.30	Stretch Break
Hanna Field Chair of West London Refugee Women's Forum & Iraqi Centre for Integration and Cohesion	3.30 - 4.30	"Conversation with All of Us Women" (dialogue/self management) followed by Appreciative Inquiry
Maria Arpa Specialist in conflict resolution, non violent communication & social change	4.30 - 4.50	Collective Conversation (cont.)
	4.50 - 4.55	Poem by Nabaa Albaqir
Maureen Goodman Programme Director BKWSU (UK)	4.55 - 5.05	Tibetan Bowls with Anne Malone
	5.05 - 5.20	Closing address
Nabaa Albaqir Young poet	5.15 - 5.30	Meditation
Premonition NW10 Club Dance Group, Harlesden
Ann Malone Sound healer, playing gentle songs of the heart

★ free admission

This event is jointly supported by West London Refugee Women's Forum, Iraqi Centre for Integration & Cohesion, and the NW10 Club (Harlesden).

